NEW HANDRAILS ON 2 PATHS

New Handrails on Atlas and Acacia Paths

We are proud to share that — with your donations — Berkeley Path Wanderers Association has purchased and installed new handrails for Acacia and Atlas paths! Atlas Path connects Hill Road and Grizzly Peak Boulevard, and Acacia Steps (pictured above) connects Cragmont Avenue and Spruce Street. Both are steep paths that benefit greatly from handrails.

“I just had a look at Acacia Steps,” says one of our members who lives near the path. “The handrail spans the entire length, not just the steep, scary railroad ties near Spruce, and it’s AWESOME. I almost choked up when I saw it. I went up, and even in slippery, muddy conditions I felt completely safe with the handrail. Go team!”

The two new handrails, which cost upwards of $40,000 for the two, are made possible by all of our AWESOME donors. Dozens of paths in Berkeley desperately need handrails, which Berkeley Path Wanderers Association — in consultation with Berkeley Public Works Department — has estimated will cost around $1 million. ## VOLUNTEER FOR PATHS INVENTORY

Sign up NOW to volunteer for 2023 paths survey on May 21

Please sign up now to volunteer for our 5-year paths inventory on May 21. Volunteers will fan out all over Berkeley — with clipboards in hand — to walk all the paths in Berkeley and record their condition. Berkeley Path Wanderers Association then collects the info sheets and compiles the observations into our Paths Condition Report, which guides path improvements. Volunteers can choose hikes of various lengths to survey different numbers of paths, and this event is family-friendly — kind of like a treasure hunt. All volunteers receive an exclusive, beautiful Path Wanderers magnet to display proudly on your refrigerators!

Please email paths survey coordinator Alina Constantinescu with any questions about signing up at alina77419@gmail.com.

SAD NEWS

Diane Resek, path builder extraordinaire, passes away at 82

With much love and sadness, Berkeley Path Wanderers Association reports that longtime path pal Diane Resek passed away peacefully at home on February 19 at age 82.

“A great Path Builder recently passed,” said Steve Glaeser, lead path-builder for Berkeley Path Wanderers Association. “We will miss her humility, her humor and fortitude, her love of playing in the dirt and hitting things with a sledge hammer, the joy she took building the paths, working with others to accomplish great goals.”

Resek started volunteering on Berkeley Path Wanderers Association’s path maintenance crew, and then got very involved with path building 4 years ago.

Resek was a retired San Francisco State math professor who lived on Poppy Lane, where Miller Avenue ends, for 35 years. She often went for long walks in the paths-rich Cragmont neighborhood and delighted in helping to build new paths.

“I love the physical exertion,” Resek told us in 2021. “For me it was really exciting to do something with my body that made a difference, and helped people.”

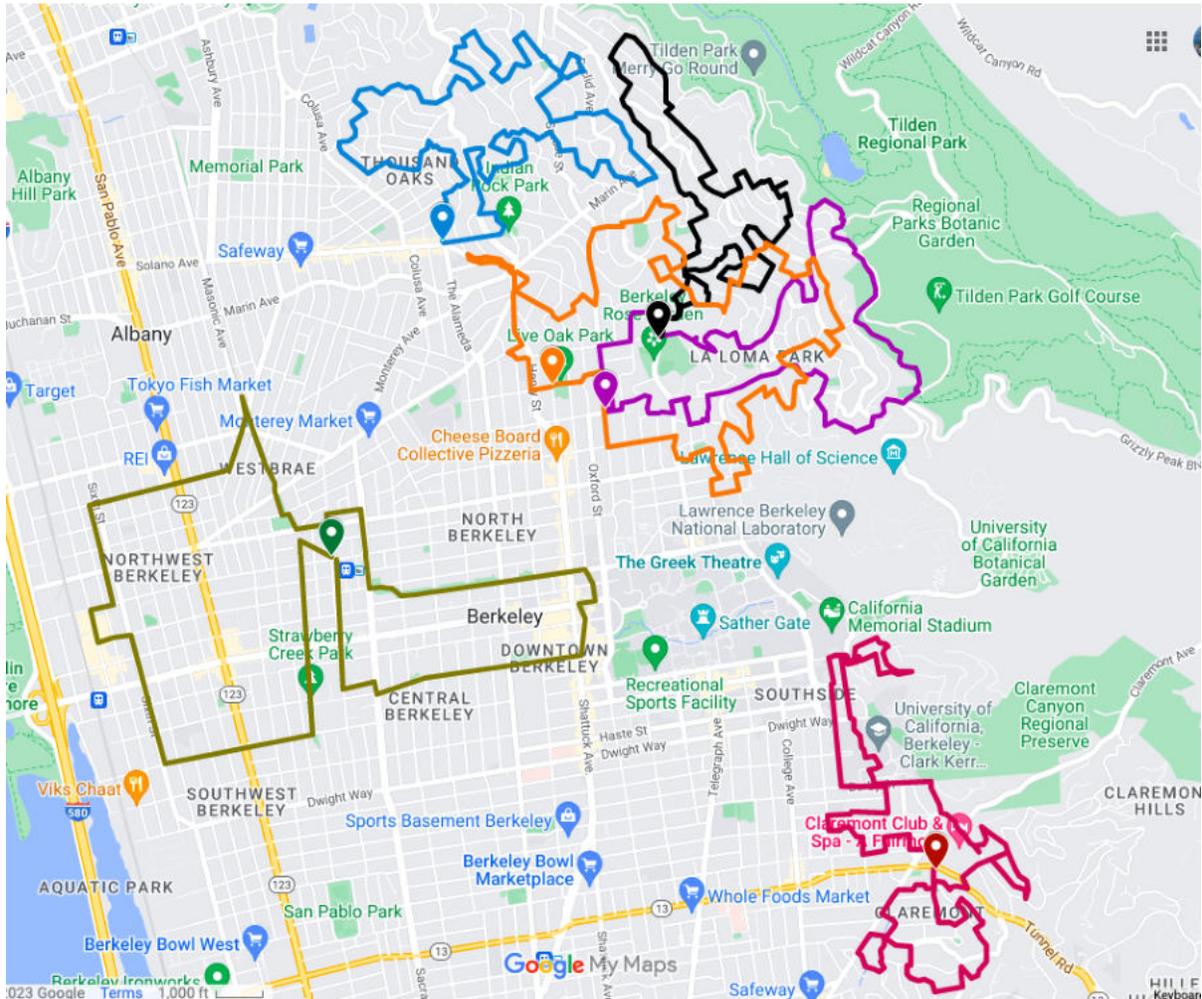

The path-building team is developing plans to construct a bench near Pinnacle Path in Resek’s honor. To make a donation in honor of Diane Resek, please click here. To read

WALK EVERY PATH IN BERKELEY WITH US

Join us on April 1 at 9 a.m. for Walk 2 of our Every Path in Berkeley: Our 25th anniversary celebration walk series

Walk one or walk all! The walks are a la carte, but walkers who do all 6 will get a newsletter shout-out and they'll receive an "I WALKED EVERY PATH IN BERKELEY" button (pictured below) to wear with pride.*

The six walks are:

- Walk 1: Sunday, March 5, led by John Ford (rain date March 11); magenta route above
- Walk 2: Saturday, April 1, led by (none other than!) Jacob Lehmann Duke; blue route
- Walk 3: Saturday, May 6, led by Alina Constantinescu; green route
- Walk 4: Sunday, June 4, led by Signe Burns and Sydney Dowdy, black route
- Walk 5: Sunday, July 9, led by John Ford; hot-pink route
- Walk 6: Sunday, August 6, led by Janet Byron; orange route

Explore every built-out path in Berkeley! As part of Berkeley Path Wanderers Association's celebration of its 25th anniversary, we will reprise the series of six walks created in 2014 by Jacob Lehmann Duke and Aviva Gerwein and featured in their guidebook, Step It Up (See "Every Path in Berkeley").

The final walk on Sunday, August 6, will be our annual Path-a-thon, with three walks to choose from, followed by a 25th anniversary celebration at Live Oak Park.

We hope to see you there!

*If you're unable to attend a group walk and do one on your own, please take a few photos along the way and report to info@berkeleypaths.org to receive your button.

Every Path in Berkeley Walk 2: Thousand Oaks to Dorothy Bolte Park

When: Saturday, April 1, 9 a.m. – noon

Leader: Jacob Lehmann-Duke

Distance: 6.2 miles

Updated Start/end: [Great Stone Face
Park](#)

Accessibility: No handrails on some of the stairways, and some walking on roads without a sidewalk. Children are welcome.

Walk with Jacob Lehmann-Duke, who co-originated the Walk Every Path in Berkeley series and walked every path on one epic day when he was 12 years old. This will be a hilly walk in North Berkeley mostly north of Marin Avenue, including the newly renovated John Hinkel Park and Indian Rock Park (right; credit: Bob Johnson). READ MORE

Above the Claremont Hotel

When: Saturday, April 15, 9 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Leader: Bob Johnson

Distance: 3 miles

Start/end: Intersection of Alvarado Road and Tunnel Road

Accessibility: Some steep sections, stairs, paths and streets without sidewalks

Starting in a neighborhood of large and impressive early 20th century homes, we will work our way up into the zone rebuilt after the 1991 East Bay hills fire, crossing now and then over the Berkeley-Oakland border. In addition to noting some of the architecture we will enjoy wide views (weather permitting), good exercise, a small creek, and a couple of unusual paths—including one that leads to a hillside area of a little-known protected open space. READ MORE

Daley's Scenic Neighborhood Stroll with Berkeley Historical Society

When: Saturday, April 29, 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Leaders: Janet Byron and Bob Johnson

Distance: 3 miles

Start/end: Berkeley Hillside Club, 2286 Cedar St.

Accessibility: This 1.5-mile stroll includes steep hills, streets, and stairs

Registration: Space is limited; register with Berkeley Historical Society on Eventbrite

The Hillside Club was formed in the 1890s to promote the principles of designing homes and neighborhoods in harmony with nature. In 1903 the club — whose members included Bernard and Annie Maybeck, John Galen Howard, and Charles Keeler — began a street improvement project in the hills north of the UC campus to promote this concept. This walk will tour the Daley's Scenic Park Improvement area and several of its historic homes, including Allanoke Manor (shown). READ MORE
